Parole Violation Warrant Leads to Drug Bust

Wednesday evening while serving a parole violation warrant, the Owsley County Sheriff's Department and Kevin Riley – Parole Officer walked in on more than they expected. A warrant was issued for Benny Vires, 37, of Booneville, KY. Vires fled the sheriff's department on a warrant that was previously served, so it was felt that extra back-up was needed. Kelly Shouse, Sheriff, Ivan Fletcher and Justin Wilson, Deputies and Kevin Riley approached the home of the suspect, found that the front door was unlocked and found the subject and Bobby Riley, 22, of Booneville, KY in a bedroom of the home.

Both were on a bed which had numerous items used in the making of methamphetamine. Other items found on the bed and in the room were, needles, bottles of unknown substances, drain cleaner, batteries, ziplock bags, etc.

Upon a search of the outside of the trailer, they found marijuana plants growing just outside the back door. Searching upon the hill directly behind the trailer they found over 25 old meth bottles thrown out where they had made meth before and left them. All of this is within 1000 feet of the Sugar Camp Christian School.

and charged with Trafficking in a Controlled Substance within 1000 feet of a school; Unlawful Possession of a Meth Precursor, 1st Offense; Drug Paraphernalia – Buy/Possess; Cultivate in Marijuana – 5 Plants 1st Offense; Trafficking in a Controlled Substance, 1st Degree, 1st Offense, (>or = 2 GMS Methamphetamine); and Parole Violation (For Technical Violation). Vires is currently in the Three Forks Regional Jail. He was arraigned on Thursday, July 11 and will be in court for a Preliminary Hearing on Thursday, July 24, 2014.

Police Chase Through Breathitt & Owsley Two Apprehended

Thursday night a traffic stop that started in Old Buck section of Breathitt County, led to a police chase that went through Owsley County and finally ended later that night back in Breathitt County with one arrest and another arrest the next day. Sargent Mike Wolfe from the KSP Post 13 in Hazard, KY attempted to do a traffic stop on a 2002 Dodge Pickup belonging to Daniel Noble, 19, of Booneville, KY. Sargent Wolfe recognized the truck, the driver and passenger Carlos Mullins, 23, of Booneville, KY, because he was working a case on the subjects and knew they had active warrants. When he attempted to do the stop, Noble fled, turning down HWY 315 toward Buckhorn. When they reached the HWY 28 intersection, they turned East on HWY 28 toward Booneville. During this time, Fish and Wildlife Officer Brian Smith came to the aid of the KSP unit.

Deputy Brent Noble from the Breathitt County Sheriff's Office contacted the Owsley County Sheriff and asked for backup. Owsley County Officers: Ivan Fletcher & Justin Wilson Deputies and Kelly Shouse, Sheriff came to their aid and began pursuing the subjects. The subjects quickly cut across Bear Run to Leros where they turned left and cut across 1717. Sometime during this turn of events, they turned onto an ATV path where passenger Carlos Mullins bolted out of the vehicle and ran into the woods. Noble proceeded into the Jetts Creek area where he was apprehended at his home around 10:30 p.m. According to the KSP Post 13, the chase was around 40 miles.

Daniel Noble

Daniel Noble was arrested and charged with Fleeing or Evading Police, 1st Degree (Motor Vehicle); Failure to Wear Seat Belts; No Operators Moped License; Failure of Non-Owner Operator to Maintain Req Ins/Sec., 1st Offense; Receiving Stolen Property U/$10,000; Criminal Mischief, 3rd Degree.

Carlos Mullins

Friday Morning, Sheriff Kelly Shouse received an anonymous tip where Carlos Mullins might be hiding. Sheriff Shouse contacted the Breathitt County Sheriff's Office and had them meet him at the address given him by the informant. When they arrived at the resident, they found Mullins in the residence where he was apprehended. Mullins was arrested by the Breathitt County Sheriff and charged with Receiving Stolen Property U/$10,000 and Criminal Mischief, 3rd Degree.

HEART OR DUTY?

I've heard members of the clergy say, "90% of the work is done by 10% of the people." I'm not sure if there is any way to test the accuracy of that statement, but in any organization, not just churches, it seems like a fair amount of the work is done by a few or at least the same people as time passes.

This week I'd like to talk to the ten percent. Those that seem to be carrying the majority of the load; Pastors, Sunday school teachers, floor sweepers, event organizers, youth workers, deacons, trustees, light bulb changers, those that make sure there is toilet paper in the restrooms and the endless list goes on.

If you think you are about to read several paragraphs of, "Hip, Hip Hooray, Keep up the Good Work!" Well, sorry; that's not the real world. All the tasks mentioned in the previous paragraph, pretty much go unappreciated until they go undone. I've never heard anyone stand up in a crowd and say, "I don't know who did it, but I really do want to thank whoever it was that put toilet paper in the restroom. My day and the day of all the people around me would be much less enjoyable if you had not done your job. Thank you so much."

What God has led to write about today is the question, "Is it heart or duty?"

God writes a letter to the church of Ephesus in Revelation 2:1-7. The pat on the back God gives the church reminds me of the ten percent. "I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars: And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast labored, and hast not fainted" (Revelation 2:2-3). God praises them for their work. The people were always busy with the work of the Lord. He also praises them for their labour. The difference between work and labour is this: Someone having a desk job is working, someone digging ditches is laboring. One is being productive; the other is being productive and working up a sweat. These people were not afraid to roll up their sleeves, get themselves dirty and do it all in the name of Christ.

He commends them for their patience. The Bible tells us that patience comes through tribulation (Romans 5:3). This church had gone through some tough times and came out stronger spiritually because of it. Sometimes when people go through difficulty they come out with bitterness and hatred; but not this group, they learned a godly virtue, patience, from the trials of life.

God also recognizes their hatred for sin. This is a quality all Christians should have but few have developed. Our Saviour went to the cross because of the sins of mankind and out of respect for Him, we should hate sin as He does (Deuteronomy 25:16; Psalm 5:4, 11:5).

Lastly God praises them for their knowledge of the Scriptures. With their ability to recognize the lies; they must have knowledge of the truth.

So, we have a church that is full of people who are faithful enough to do the work, no matter how difficult, to work through trials and come out spiritually stronger, have a hatred for evil and have an excellent knowledge of the Word of God.

Even with all this, God was aware of a problem; a rather large one. "Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love" (Revelation 2:4).

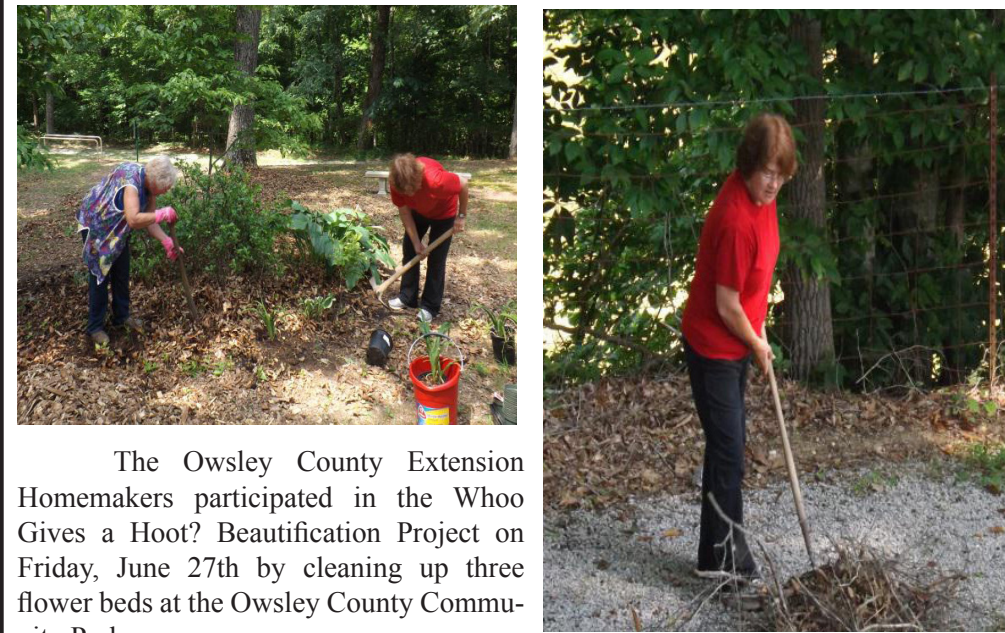

Even after doing all the labour, getting everything done, working through trials and an above average understanding of the Bible; their heart just wasn't in it anymore. They we're going through the motions, getting things accomplished, but the zeal was gone.

To the ten percent I ask these questions, "Is the heart still in it? Are your works for the Lord, because you love Him or because it is your duty? Do you do what you do for the Saviour because your heart wouldn't have it any other way or because there is no one else to do it?"

Only things done for the Lord through love will last. Jesus tells them the end result, unless they work because of their love for the Lord, He will remove their church (compare Revelation 1:20 with Revelation 2:5). To the 90% I say, "Thank you!" But also to the 90% God gives us a good warning to check our motives, look at our heart and not allow the love to fade away.

Who Gives a Hoot?
Beautification Project!

The Owsley County Extension Homemakers participated in the Who Gives a Hoot? Beautification Project on Friday, June 27th by cleaning up three flower beds at the Owsley County Community Park.

These flower beds are located at the center of the park. We cleaned out leaves and weeds before we planted new flowers and perennials. We also added some new mulch, fertilizer and weed preventer. Special thanks to the Owsley County Maintenance Garage for supplying us with the mulch. Go check them out as you get some physical activity by walking along the trail at the Owsley County Park. A very special thanks to Maria Edwards and Sandy Hamilton for all of their help.

You and your organization can also be a part of this project by beautifying an area in the county. Please call the Owsley County Extension Service at (606)593-5109 to register. We will either assign you a public space or you can let us know where you would like to beautify. We can't wait to hear from you!

Fun DIY Projects for Back to School

(StatePoint) Back to school shopping can seem tedious and boring for some students. But you can help your young ones get motivated for a new school year by getting them more involved in the experience.

After an extended vacation, going back to school and getting back into the daily grind can seem stifling, but personalizing and accessorizing school supplies, lockers and work spaces can be a simple antidote.

With that in mind, here are a few tips and DIY ideas to get kids pumped about the new school year:

Notebooks

Why settle for the same plain notebooks everyone else has? Liven up math, history and English by decorating a notebook for each subject with its own unique design and color concept. Doing so isn't just fun, it can help students find their stuff quickly during the rush between classes.

One easy way to decorate notebooks and reinforce them at the same time against wear and tear is with duct tape. Lay down a solid color duct tape along the cover of your notebook in rows, then use a crafting knife to cut along the sides, making the edges sharp and clean. After that, lay a few horizontal, diagonal or vertical stripes of patterned duct tape down over the base in fun patterns to make it your own.

Don't forget to label each notebook with your name and subject!

Workspaces

A student's work space should be a place that inspires him or her to do great work and be creative. But that can seem impossible when the space is colorless and uninspiring. To get your kids excited about homework, let them play a role in choosing where they do it and then allow them to decorate that area.

A place for friendly reminders and to-do lists above the desk can be a helpful study aid that keeps kids on task. However, rather than hanging a conventional chalkboard, create a portable version with 3M's new Scotch Chalkboard Tape or Dry Erase Tape, which acts just like a regular chalkboard or dry erase surface, but is applied like tape and removes cleanly and easily from surfaces.

Be Creative

You provide the binders, notebooks, pencils and the crafting supplies and let kids provide the imagination. And now, kids can share their crafting talent not just with their classmates, but also with the world by entering 3M's "Tape On" contest where they can submit their own back to school creations using duct tape for an opportunity to win prizes.

Feeling inspired? Channel that creativity this summer by submitting your own back to school project. Visit <http://go.3M.com/tapeoncontest> for more information on how to enter and to see the official contest rules.

Don't let back to school shopping be a chore. This year, get the kids off to a great start by making school -- and all the supplies that come with it -- personal, stylish and fun.

Night had fallen, and the mountain music was humming as they stood on Delsie's porch saying their goodbyes. Liza and her two favorite men thanked Delsie for a fun evening and a superb meal. "Same time and same place next Sunday," Delsie announced. "We wouldn't miss it for the world!" answered Clarence. The three of them talked happily about the evening on the ride home. Jake helped Clarence out of the truck and then reached for Liza. He told her he might need to hold her wrist instead of her hand so he wouldn't hurt her. She smiled and reached for his hand and found that some of the soreness had eased up on her fingertips. She told Jake he was very kind to worry about her overworked fingers. He replied, "I worry about all of you, not just your fingers." Liza stopped in mid-step and looked at the genuine expression on his face and was touched by his admission. As Jake unlocked the front door, Clarence pulled off his boots and told them his "dogs were barking". That was something he always used to say when he came home from work, Liza remembered. Jake said his dogs were barking too, and he said goodnight. Liza turned on the Tiffany lamp in the living room and reached for the guitar case. "You better let your fingers rest until tomorrow my dear," her daddy suggested. Liza knew he was right, so she agreed and headed off to shower. "Goodnight Liza, it was the best day yet!" Clarence told his daughter. "You always say that daddy, and it's always true!" echoed Liza Jane.

September 16, 2010

Dear Jessie,

As I write to you tonight I can feel the ends of my fingers on my left hand. If you cannot figure out why I would say that, I will tell you that today I started playing the guitar after a long hiatus. It has been too long since I sat down and spent time playing and singing. I need practice! It's like riding a bike, you don't forget how, you just feel quite rusty at it at first! My singing voice is rusty and my breathing is rusty. I found myself running out of air while I was singing. I have two weeks to learn a couple of songs to surprise my father and Jake. I want to sing and play for them before I leave! I haven't entertained for a long time. I feel like doing it again! I was also feeling rusty at wearing dresses until tonight. I am going to find a store somewhere and pick me up a handful of new dresses to wear for special occasions. Remember in elementary and in high school we weren't allowed to wear pants like the boys. I have decided to exercise a personal rule that I am not allowed to wear pants all the time anymore!

With Love,
Liza Jane Calahan

Brandon McWhorter, who carded a combined -6 to earn the win. The team portion of the league play is interesting in that one doesn't know who their partner is going to be until after the golf round has concluded and cards are drawn to match up the pairs. So, everyone draws a card and anxiously waits to see who will draw the same number as their card, then add the two scores to get a total. Sometimes a golfer can get lucky and win the low total plus the team, resulting in winning 2/3 of the money. In the case of this week, though, there were 3 winners.

The closest to the pin gift certificates for the par 3's were won by Robert Smith on hole number 3 and Brandon McWhorter won number 6. The closest to the pins for Tuesday league were sponsored Allen Ambulance Service and Gay Brother's Logging.

* Thursday, July 10th nine hole scramble was won by the team of Brandon McWhorter, David Nickell, Mike Wilson, and Kyle Wilson. The closest to the pin gift certificates on the two par 3's were both won by Butch McWhorter. The closest to the pins for this week's scramble were sponsored by Showtime Pizza of Jackson and Begley Auto Parts.

* The next 18 hole scramble at Sag Hollow is scheduled for Saturday, July 26, starting at 10 am. Call the clubhouse at 606-593-4653 for more details, or call Betsy or Lauren at 800-806-5492.

* A par 3 Glow Ball Challenge golf tournament is scheduled at Sag Hollow for Friday, August 8, starting at 6:30 pm. Entry fee is $30. The first nine holes will be played in daylight and the back nine will be played in darkness. Contact Eric at the clubhouse (593-4653) for further details.

Whoo Gives a Hoot? Beautification Project

The winners of the Whoo Gives a Hoot? Beautification Project of the Week is Wolf Creek Metal. Check out their two new beautifully landscaped areas below their signs. Special thanks to Ronnie Callahan for entering them in the contest and for the Wolf Creek Metal workers for all their hard work to make their area more beautiful! You can still join in on the Whoo Gives a Hoot? Beautification Project by calling the Owsley County Extension Service at (606)593-5109, messaging us on Facebook or by emailing me at nlucas@uky.edu. My son is gone but not forgotten.

The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want, he maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside still waters, yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all of the days of my life.

Mom misses you so much with all my heart.

Outdoor Truths

It's hard to believe that even now bow hunters must begin thinking about the upcoming season. Not only do trail cameras need to be set up but, more importantly, we need to be honing our shot-making skills. And since I'm not one who shoots all year long, I am even more concerned about beginning this process. In bow hunting, the margin of error is extremely narrow, so for the benefit of everything involved, it is crucial that a well-placed shot be made. But there is also more that magnifies this need. For me, I will make another trip to Pike County, Illinois and will also make my annual trip to Missouri. I do not take either of these trips for granted. They both are home to some bruiser bucks that most of us rarely get to see, much less have an opportunity to harvest. To be unprepared for these opportunities would really demean and trivialize these rare occasions. For me, these trips are the highlight of my hunting season and the last word that needs to categorize these few days is "regret."

When I think about this whole scenario, it really does fit into the way much of life works. If you notice, most of the time, the greater the opportunity and the greater the skill level; the longer the preparation. For instance, a heart surgeon must go to school longer than a mechanic. The importance of the heart surgeon getting her job right carries more weight than does the mechanic. If my mechanic makes a mistake, I am stranded. If the cardiologist makes a mistake, I'm dead. And while both use their hands and some very intricate tools, one must prepare longer because of the limited opportunity and the price of failure. Again, I may bring my truck back to my mechanic for a second time in order to get it right but I may not have the opportunity for a second visit to my heart doctor. Now back to my deer hunt.

I rarely have an opportunity to hunt big bucks in places like Pike County, Illinois. I may never get the opportunity to go back. So therefore, I need to make sure that, should I get the chance to shoot one of those Pope and Young bucks, I am confident in my skills to place a good and effective shot. And while this is my desire every year and while I practice for this same purpose every year, the cost of getting it wrong when so much is on the line, drives me to begin even sooner. If you are a bow hunter, you know what I am talking about. But here's the clincher. The greatest decision in anyone's life, and the one that carries the most weight, is what decision you will make about eternity. To wait any longer to make this decision is to not understand its gravity. And to remain unprepared for it is to demean and trivialize the exceptional opportunity.
